Annual Wreath Laying Ceremony

Gippsland Asbestos Related Diseases Support Inc. are conducting their Annual Wreath Laying Ceremony to coincide with International Workers' Memorial Day in memory of workers who die, are injured or fall ill as a result of their work.

The Annual Wreath Laying Ceremony will take place in Centenary Rose Garden, Commercial Road, Morwell at 11.00am, on Monday April 28th 2008

An ecumenical service will be conducted by Father Peter Mizera from Sacred Heart Church, Morwell.

There will be a dedication of flowers during the ceremony to all families who have lost a loved one.

Newborough Primary School choir will be in attendance

GARDS Scottish bag pipers will play laments through out the ceremony

Speakers coming to highlight this day will be:

Senior Sgt Howard Jones – Victoria Police

Tony Medina – OH&S Coordinator whose life/health has been affected by his past working conditions

Steve Dodd – Assistant Secretary Gippsland Trades & Labour Council

Vicki Hamilton Secretary of GARDS representing sufferers & their families whom have lost their lives to asbestos disease.

We invite all in the community to come along and be apart of this ceremony, knowing that people from all over the world will be remembering and supporting workers' in their corner of the world who have died as a result of their work. Mark the date in your calendar and come and support your fellow workers' and their families.

After the ceremony there will be a free BBQ lunch with the compliments of the Gippsland Trades & Labour Council
